

MIR Education Seminar Series Presents:

Turning Innovation into Entrepreneurship:

Funding Opportunities for Early-Stage Ventures from the National Institute of Health

Do you have an innovative concept?

Do you know the steps to take?

Do you have the tools needed to make your idea a reality?

NIH Program Directors, Deepa Narayanan, MS and Jonathan Franca-Koh, PhD, MBA are here to set you on the path to success. Join us for an overview and interactive discussion of the NIH Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) funding programs. WUSTL Provost, Dr. Holden Thorp, will share institutional incentives to entrepreneurship at WU.

Do you need one-on-one guidance to take your research or ideas to the next level?

Interested participants will have the unique opportunity to engage in a 15-min one-on-one discussion with program directors. To be in this exclusive discussion, please select the appropriate area of interest through the RSVP link below.

When: September 7th, 2017 9am-11am, One-on-One meetings: 12pm-2pm

Where: Holden Auditorium located in Farrell Learning and Teaching Center.

WUSTL—520 S. Euclid Ave., St. Louis, MO 63110
